BetterPhoto.com® Offers Two New Classes for November!

“The Nikon D80 Camera” and “Eye to Eye: Capturing the Face”

REDMOND, Washington – Oct.27, 2006 – BetterPhoto.com, the worldwide leader in online photography education, today announced the addition of two new 4-Week classes to the November course schedule. Like all BetterPhoto courses, these will be taught by published, professional photographers. Photo assignments are personally critiqued by the instructor, giving students immediate feedback on their photographic work. Classes begin November 1st.

“We are always excited to offer new courses that we know will inspire our students to greater heights in their photography,” said Jim Miotke, President and founder of BetterPhoto. com. “And the positive feedback we receive is a great motivator to keep it up!”

The Nikon D80 Camera, taught by Simon Stafford, is devoted to revealing the various functions and features of this new camera. Simon, a regular contributor to photographic magazines in the UK, is known for his prompt and generous answers to his student's questions. Scott Stulberg's new course, Eye to Eye: Capturing the Face, will teach techniques on how to make a powerful image of the human face. Scott hopes his students will learn to capture the spirit of a person at just the right moment!

BetterPhoto brings together over 150,000 members from around the world for learning, fun, and community. The site offers over 80 courses on photography and Photoshop, taught by scores of published, professional photographers including Tony Sweet, Brenda Tharp, Jim Zuckerman, Outdoor Photographer editor Rob Sheppard, and Shutterbug editor George Schaub. Courses are offered every month. Sign up today to get your photos thoughtfully and promptly reviewed by professionals. The monthly BetterPhoto.com contest, considered the best on the web, brings in over 25,000 entries monthly, and awards winners in 10 categories.
