BetterPhoto.com® Offers Two New Classes for June!

REDMOND, Washington – June 6, 2007 – BetterPhoto.com, the worldwide leader in online photography education, today announced the addition of two new 4-Week classes to the June course schedule. Like all BetterPhoto courses, Landscape Essentials and Techniques of Natural Light Photography, will be taught by published, professional photographers. Photo assignments are personally critiqued by the instructor, giving students immediate feedback on their photography. Classes begin June 6th. There is still plenty of time to enroll.

“Nature and lighting are both very popular subjects at our online digital photography school. We find that our students gravitate to courses that spark their creativity and spur them to greater heights in their photography,” said Jim Miotke, President and founder of BetterPhoto.com. “And with veteran instructors such as William Neill and Jim Zuckerman teaching these new classes, we expect very high enrollment.”

William Neil, award-winning landscape photographer, Outdoor Photographer columnist, and resident of Yosemite teaches Landscape Essentials. This 4-Week course details how quality of light, image design and emotional content draw people to the artistry of photographic images. Author of 12 books including Digital Effects and Perfect Exposure, Jim Zuckerman, is an accomplished photographer with images shown throughout the world. Taught by Zuckerman, Techniques of Natural Light Photography examines the skills of low-angled sunlight, moody light, backlight, and window light photography.
